

Unglue It and Other Sticky Songs lyrics

1. Sing Along Songs

Sing-along songs,
Sing-along songs.
Everybody wants to sing
Sing-along songs.

Sing-along a story
Sing-along a rhyme,
Everybody wants to sing
A long, long time.

Here are the words
They aren't very long
And, it's impossible
To sing them wrong

These little words--
You sing them, too--
I could sing them all alone
But it's much more fun
to sing with you

Sing-along songs,
Sing-along songs
Everybody wants to sing
Sing-along songs.

Sing-along a story
Sing-along a rhyme,
Everybody wants to sing
A long, long time.

Here are the words
They aren't very long
And, it's impossible
To sing them wrong

These little words--
You sing them, too--
I could sing them all alone
But it's much more fun
to sing with you.

Sing-along songs,
Sing-along songs.
Everybody wants to sing
Sing-along songs.

Everybody wants to
Everybody needs to
Everybody loves to sing
Sing-along songs.

Mice Are Rather Nice

By Sharon MacDonald (Adapted from Mice, a poem, by Rose Fyleman)

I think mice are rather nice.

I think mice are rather nice.

Their tails are long, their faces small,
They haven't any chins at all.
They nibble things they shouldn't touch.
My mom doesn't like 'em much.

Oh yes, I think mice are nice.

Their ears are pink, their teeth are white,
They scurry through the house at night.
They leave their tracks on the kitchen floor.
They can squeeze under any door.

Oh yes, I think mice are nice.

They eat our cheese and our Cheerios
Saltine crackers and a little piece of hot dog that I dropped on the floor
They eat our bread and some Spaghettios
But when the sun comes up, they don't eat anymore.

They make funny noise inside the walls
Their little squeaks echo down the halls.
The young ones want us to go to bed
"Cause that's when all of them get fed.

Oh yes, I think mice are nice.

They eat our cheese and our Cheerios
Saltine crackers and a little piece of hog dog that I dropped on the floor

They eat our bread and some Spaghettios
But when the sun comes up, they don't eat anymore.

They make funny noise inside the walls
Their little squeaks echo down the halls.
The young ones want us to go to bed
'Cause that's when all of them get fed.

Oh yes, I think mice are nice.
Oh yes, I think mice are nice.

3. So I Did, Again

So, I did again what I thought I could
I stood up on my tippy toes
And I did again what I thought I could
I made my knees open and close

So, I did again, what I thought I could
I flapped my elbows up and down
And I did again what I thought I could
I turned my body all around

So, there I was a turning
On my tippy toes
Knees open and close
Can you make this pose?

So there I was a flappin'
My elbows up and down
Turning all around
Making cluckin' sounds

So I did again what I thought I could
I hung my right foot in the air.
And I did again what I thought I could
I put my left hand in my hair.

So I did again what I thought I could
I used my right hand to touch my nose.
And I did again what I thought I could
I shook my left leg down to my toes.

So, there I was just hanging
My right foot in the air
Left hand in my hair
I think I'll leave it there.

So there I was a standin'
Right hand on my nose
Left leg shaking toes...
This is the way it goes.

We've been singing, we've been moving
We've been twirlin' all around.
We've been cluckin' and flappin'
Now, let's all sit down.

(Make up a dance and dance to the music with your friends (or just dance with yourself).)

4. Unglue It!

I was busy gluing
A paper thing to fly,
I squeezed the bottle too hard
And a squirt flew by my eye.

The glue ran down my fingers
And it dripped upon the table.
I used my shirt to wipe it up--
At least, as much as I was able.

Unglue it, (Echo: "Unglue it")
Unglue it (Echo: "Unglue it")
I sure wish that I
Could unglue it? (Echo: "Unglue it")

My shirt stuck to the table
My foot stuck to the floor.
Paper stuck to my fingers,
I could not get stuck anymore.

Just all stuck together.
I was wondering what to do.
But it's awfully hard to think
With lots of things all stuck to you.

Unglue it, (Echo: "Unglue it")
Unglue it (Echo: "Unglue it")
Could I get a small bottle
Of unglue It? (Echo: "Unglue it")

Glue is very useful,
It's sticky and it's strong.
It holds things tight together--
Even when it's wrong.

So, if you're all stuck together
And you're wondering what to do
Remember your Unglue It
And squeeze it on the glue on you.

Unglue it (Echo: "Unglue it")
Unglue it (Echo: "Unglue it")
I would like a small bottle
Just for me (Echo: "Unglue it")

Yes, I would like a small bottle
Just for me (Echo: "Unglue it")

5. Little Tree House

Please build for me
A house in a tree
Called the little tree house,
The little tree house.

I'd like to be
In a house in a tree
Called the little tree house,
The little tree house.

Simplest thing.
There isn't much to it.
You just climb a tree
And nail everything to it.

I'd like it so,
Wherever I'd go,
I'd sing of my
Little tree house.

6. The Circus Elephant

When you go to the circus you're likely to see
An elephant covered in dress finery.
What a sight to the eyes is the elephant, grand
As he slips his four feet on that tiny, round stand.

If I were an elephant in that tight place
I would loudly protest about the very small space.
I am too big to sit on that tiny, round stand.
And, if I fell off who knows where I'd land.

But, when you go to the zoo you'll be so surprised
That the elephant has nothing to cover his hide
No blankets, no hat, no fancy dress clothes
Just a mountain of grey from his tail to his nose.

If I were an elephant at the zoo
I'd blow water on myself, on my friends, or at you.
I'd roll in the mud to keep my skin cool
And flap my big ears, wouldn't you?

At the zoo the elephant just stands there and sways
And circles his trunk over hunks of fresh hay.
Will I go the circus when I get big like you?
Of course I will it's too quiet at the zoo.

7. Little Black Ant

If I were a little black ant
I know what I would do
I'd build a house down in the ground.
And invite a friend or two

If you were a little black ant
I think that you would say,
"I'll come right down into the ground.
And we can play all day."

We would play cars.
We would play tag.
We would play hide-and-peek.
Blow up a paper bag.

We would play ball,
We would play chase.
We would dance and sing.
And make a silly face.

If I were a little black ant
I know what I would do
I'd start an ant colony
With tunnels running through.

If you were a little black ant
I think that you would say,
"We'd better haul it out of here
Before the bug man, sprays here today."

We would play _____.
We would play tag.
We would play _____.
Blow up a paper bag.
We would play _____.
We would play chase.
We would _____.
And make a silly face.

If I were a little black ant
I know what I would do
I'd build a house down in the ground.
And invite a friend or two

If you were a little black ant
I think that you would say,
"I'll come right down into the ground.
And we can play all day."

8. Ely and the Five Little Piglets

Down in the farm yard, playing around
Five little piglets rooting in the ground--
The first little pig said, "I want lunch."
The second pig asked, "Carrots...in a bunch?"

The third one said, "I don't want those."
The fourth one snorted, "I'll smell 'em with my nose (snort)."
The fifth one said, "Mama's calling us!
So, pig four suggested, "Let's all ride to Mama's on the bus."

Pig three sighed, "A bus is, silly."
Pig two agreed, "Yeah, silly, really!"
Pig one yelled, "Let's race to the sty."
"No," said Ely, "And, I'll tell you why":

"You could arrive at the sty, from the sky, on the sly if you learned to fly"

Who is this guy Ely?

Ely's the guy who lives near the sty
Who says that pigs can learn to fly.
Yeah, Ely is the guy who lives near the sty
Who thinks that pigs can fly, when they try.

Now you know Ely.

"I'm the you-could-arrive-at-the-sty-from-the-sky-on-the-sly-if-you-learned-to-fly...guy."

OK, who is Ely?

9. Community Workers

Sing the song three times, the first time, repeat the question. The second time, answer the question. The third time, the children answer the question.

Who brings the mail? 1. Who brings the mail? 2. The mail carrier 3. Answer

Community workers,

Are you surprised? 1. Not me. 3. Answer

1. Well, are you surprised? 2. They all improve our lives. 3. They all improve our lives

10. Being Sick Blues

When I'm sick I feel yucky,
They say I have the flu.
I watch TV, read some books,
Lickin' popsicles feels good to do.

When I'm sick I feel yucky,
I have fever in my head.
I swallow awful medicine
And I lick popsicles in bed.

But, I'd like to go outside to run around on the lawn.
I'd like to bounce a ball with my friends.
I'd like to go outside, to see what's going on,
Before all of my friends are gone.

When I'm sick I feel yucky,
But, I just talked to my mother.
She's just a little unhappy with me--
I gave the flu to my little brother.

Yes, I'd like to go outside to run around on the lawn
I'd like to bounce a ball with my friends
I'd like to go outside, to see what's going on,
Before all of my friends are gone.

When I'm sick I feel yucky
But, I just talked to my mother.
She's just a little unhappy with me--
I gave the flu to my little brother.

11. The Whopper, Topper Apple

The whopper, topper apple is big, red, and round
Picked from a tree that has a trunk in the ground
With roots down below that drink water in the dark
And branches up above for birds, like the lark

Bite through the skin to taste the apple meat
It's crunchy, splashy...
And it tastes tangy sweet.
If you eat a whopper, topper--which is very good to do--
You'll feel better (better, better, better, better, better).
'Cause an apple's good for you.

The whopper, topper apple is big, red, and round
Picked from a tree that has a trunk in the ground
With roots down below that drink water in the dark
And branches up above for birds, like a penguin

Whopper topper apple juice is very good to drink
It's splashy, tangy
Tastes better than you think
Whopper, topper apples are the best ones to use
And you'll feel better (better, better, better, better, better).
'Cause apple juice is good for you.

The whopper, topper apple is big, red, and round
Picked from a tree that has a trunk in the ground
With roots down below that drink water in the dark
And branches up above for birds, like the buzzard.

Whopper topper apple pie is very good to eat
It's crunchy, splashy...
And it tastes tangy sweet
Whopper topper apple pie--which is nice to serve for two--
You'll both feel better (better, better, better, better, better).
'Cause apple pie is good for you

The whopper, topper apple is big, red, and round
Picked from a tree that has a trunk in the ground
With roots down below that drink water in the dark
And branches up above for birds, like the whooping crane.

12. Call Me

Call me, call me
On the telephone
I want to hear you say my name
Call me, I'll be at home.

Call me, call me
Let's talk for a little awhile
Then, I could call you back
When I learn to dial.

Telephone's in my ear
I talk through just one end
I say, "Hello!" at the beginning
Then, "Good bye," at the end.

So, call me, call me
So I can use the phone
If my mother answers
Ask for me, I'll be at home.

Telephone's in my ear
I talk through just one end
I can start, "Hello?"
Then, "Good Bye" at the end.

Call me, call me
Let's talk for a little awhile
Then, I could call you back
When I learn to dial.

13. Five Round Pizzas

Five round pizzas in the pizza shop
Big and round with melted cheese on the top
Along came _____ with a $1 one day
He (she) bought a pizza pie and took it on his way.

Four round pizzas in the pizza shop
(Repeat above)

Three round pizzas in the pizza shop

Two round pizzas in the pizza shop
(Repeat above)

One round pizza in the pizza shop
(Repeat above)

No round pizzas in the pizza shop
Big and round with melted cheese on the top
Along came _____ with a $1 one day.
No pizza pie for you today.

14. In The Leafy Treetops

In the leafy tree tops
The branches are dancing
Move on your tip toes
And you can dance, too.

Motion, commotion
Do you have a notion?
What blows the leafy tree tops
To make the leaves dance?

In the leafy tree tops
The branches are swaying
If you put your arms up
Then, you can sway, too.

Motion, commotion
Do you have a notion?
What blows the leafy tree tops
To make the leaves dance?

Step up, step back
Shake hands with a friend
Step up, step back,
Shake hands again

Step up, step back
Shake hands with a friend
Step up, step back
Shake hands again

In the leafy tree tops
The wind whispers softly
The wind blows the tree tops
To make the leaves dance.

Motion, commotion
Now, you have a notion.
The wind blows the treetops
To make the leaves dance.

Step up, step back
Shake hands with a friend
Step up, step back,
Shake hands again

Step up, step back
Turn toward a friend
Step up, step back
Dance like a leaf in the wind
Dance like a leaf in the wind
Dance like a leaf in the wind

15. Rules

It's so hard to remember the rules,
The ones we have in homes and schools.
Keep our hands to ourselves,
Put the blocks back on the shelves.
It takes a long time to learn the rules.

It's so hard to remember rules,
The ones we have in homes and schools.
Look for cars when crossing the street.
Know which place is your seat.
It takes a long time to learn the rules.

Sometimes it gets so very confusing
To remember all the rules we're using.
Sometimes I wish that I could see
The best way for me to be.

It's so hard to remember the rules,
The ones we have in homes and schools.
Say, "Please," "Thank you," and "Hello."
To all the people that you know.
It takes a long time to learn the rules.

It's so hard to remember the rules,
The ones we have in homes and schools.
Take turns when you play with toys.
Keep things quiet—keep down the noise.
It takes a long time to learn the rules.

Sometimes it gets so very confusing
To remember all the rules we're using.
Sometimes I wish that I could see
The best way for me to be.

16. Slobbers

Slobbers lick their fingers
After eating pie
Milk drips off their pointy chins
And, splashes--sometimes—in their eye

Slobbers talk with their mouths full
Their chews are noisy smacks
Large bites never fit their mouths
Because they eat their food in stacks.

Are you a slobber, not youber?
How do you know, do you eat slow?
If you asked some friends to watch you eat,
Would they say you slobbered,
Or would they say you're neat?

Slobbers can't eat everything
It doesn't mean that they don't try
Their mouths just cannot hold it all
That's when the food begins to fly

Down upon the table
Their places get crumbly and wet.
You'd think with all that sticky mess.
They'd clean up, but they forget.

Are you a slobber—not youber?
How do you know, do you eat slow?
If you asked some friends to watch you eat
Would they say you slobbered
Or would they say you're neat?

Slobbers lick their fingers
After eating pie
Milk drips off their pointy chins
And, splashes--sometimes--in their eye

Sloobers talk with their mouths full
Their chews are noisy smacks
Large bites never fit their mouths
Because they eat their food in stacks.

Large bites never fit their mouths
Because they eat their food in stacks.

17. Put Together Pet

There is a place that you can go
To shop for the parts of pets you know
Bodies are there and heads and noses,
Hands, eyes, necks and stubby toes'es

Boxes and jars are stuffed with parts
To make your pet, you starts.
Choose your pet's legs, arms and tail
Elbows, claws or fingernails

Pick your pet's parts, stick 'em together
Make a pet that you can pat for forever
Draw on the lips, glue on the cheeks
Choose knobby knees and very soft feets

So look in the shop for your pet's parts
Choose well from the jar marked, Inside Hearts.
Add teeth, a tongue, and two floppy ears
Make a sign:

Put-together-pet-right-here
Put-together-pet-right-here

Pick your pet's parts, stick 'em together
Make a pet that you can pat for forever
Draw on the lips, glue on the cheeks
Choose knobby knees and very soft feets
